Awards and recognitions

The N.S.S. unit of the institution has been playing a meritorious role in extension activities in our neighbourhood community for instilling vital morals in all students since 2017. The unit performs a vital role to sensitize our students' for social, physical and moral development issues through the importance of cleanliness, the protection of the environment, yoga, creative and cultural activities, Uttarakhand Rajya sthapan diwas, water and soil conservation, anti-drug awareness, gender equality, AIDS awareness programs etc. The unit of the Institution through its regular activities, includes, five one-day camps every year and seven-day annual special camps sees the participation of its volunteers in various government-led community service activities and programmes with its stated aim to provide hands-on experience to young volunteers in delivering community service. These camps and intellectual activities have enabled them to interact with fellow members hailing from various parts of India; infuse a sense of love towards the various regions of India; fraternity, and team spirit, enhance leadership qualities and risk-taking capacity; improve their physical, and moral, educational and mental strength and exposing them to new vocational possibilities. The main focus has been on cleanliness and sanitation under "Swachha Bharat Abhiyan" with the volunteers along with local participation. Along with all these important and sensitive issues the unit gave incredible participation in the crucial time of the pandemic Covid-19. Our Volunteers participated in their best possible endeavours to get aware people of Corona. They distributed hand-made masks, aware people of cleanliness especially sanitization of hands frequently, social distancing and use of vaccination etc. For their commendable performance, for the past five years including their active participation in the time of the Pandemic Covid-19, the Program Officer along with their four volunteers were awarded a certificate of appreciation by the State Government of Uttarakhand state in the year 2020-21.
